EDITORIAL PROFILE:

Harper's Bazaar is always in the centre of Moscow social life. It highlights the most famous first nights, fashion catwalks, best parties and celebrities.

The international standard set by the group means that you are guaranteed good editorial quality. Approximately 300 pages per issue enables the title to devote more editorial to fashion and style than any other publication – the same applies for advertising opportunities. Harper's Bazaar is a combination of luxurious, exclusive visual images with an original editorial approach.

The best local and international photographers and stylists work on each issue to give previews of the latest trends and fashion even before they appear on the street: "Before the world knows about them, you will have read about them in Harper's Bazaar." (Shakri Amirkhanova, Editor-in-Chief)
